Global Software Inc. names Christian Rossetti as Director, North American Channel Development

Raleigh, North Carolina, USA (April 10, 2008) – Global Software, Inc., the number one provider of Microsoft® Excel-based automation and analysis tools to the leading enterprise resource planning (ERP) platforms, announced today the hiring of Christian Rossetti as Director, North American Channel Development.

Global Software's Channel Partner team is progressively developing into a worldwide movement. Mr. Rossetti's role will be to expand on the current momentum through leveraging his expertise in software alliances and channel development.

"Mr. Rossetti's experience will be of great value here at Global Software. Our growth within our partner channel has created new and exciting challenges for our Partner team," states Spencer Kupferman, Vice President, Corporate Affairs. "We are revolutionizing the relationship between software and services by providing our partners not just with a Spreadsheet Automation Suite but exceptional services as well; a combination that is creating significant opportunities for them."

Mr. Rossetti joins Global Software with a wealth of sales management and channel development experience. He's expertise in building mutually beneficial relationships with the channel partners he represents stems from positions held with Optio Software, 170 Systems and Actuate. Most recently, Mr. Rossetti was the Manager of Sales and Business Development at Polaris Associates, an Oracle E-Business Suite Business Partner. He is a proud graduate of the University of Georgia.

"I am excited to join the team here at Global Software and am supremely confident of the direction and strategy set forth by Global's executive team," exclaims Mr. Rossetti. "The marketplace is crying out for a more efficient and powerful way to utilize Microsoft Excel-based Spreadsheets and I am confident that the users of Global's Excel Automation Suite know that we have the answer. I look forward to jumping in immediately and building on Global's continued success."
